

British Budo Federation

Introduction and Welcome

The British Budo Federation (BBF) is a small independent organisation that supports traditional and modern multi styled martial artists, whether practising solely or in groups.

The aim of the BBF is to provide a first class, professional service to all of its students at a competitive price.

The BBF is an equal opportunities organisation and offers development in all aspects of the martial arts including Coaching, Competitions and Gradings.

The BBF follows the National Coaching Foundation standards for NVQ and all licensed BBF instructors hold appropriate coaching award qualifications and professional indemnity insurance. All students by right of their membership hold third party insurance.

Chief instructor of the BBF A Sedgwick

The headquarters of the BBF are to be found in Lancashire.

I have martial arts training experience and have held the position of Chairman of the NDBK Technical Committee. The BBF is committed to the philosophy of service quality at a price people would expect to pay.

You are welcomed to the BBF and I hope your time with US is enjoyable and rewarding.

Your club instructor will be able to provide you with as much information about the services the BBF offer but if you require any further information then please do not hesitate to contact us via The Registrar, 439, Rossendale Rd, Burnley, LANCASHIRE BB11 5HJ

Yours in Budo

Amos Sedgwick
